DRESSAGE – CONES – PACE DRIVE WITH OBSTACLES

SAT.,
APRIL 16,
2016

This is a low-key fun event, at a new venue located in east central Florida west of New Smyrna Beach just a few miles from the I-95 / SR-44 exit.

DRESSAGE JUDGE:

We are pleased to have David Jay (Ocala) as our dressage judge.

DIVISIONS:

- “GREEN AS GRASS” DIVISION for new competitors.
This is for those competitors who have never driven a dressage test in a judged competition.
- OPEN DIVISION for all other competitors

CONTINUOUS DRIVE DETAILS:

Starting times will be based on the number of entries. First driver out no earlier than 9 a.m. Each entry will be assigned a start time and will complete the competitions in this order:

1. Dressage— ADS Training Test 1— “Green As Grass” Division
—or—
Dressage— ADS Preliminary Test 1*— “Open” Division
2. After a short rest, you will drive the cones course, followed by
3. A timed pace drive (approx 3K). The first part is in an open field with a few marathon-style obstacles for extra fun, then you continue on the community equestrian trails to complete the pace drive, finishing up at the barn area. NOTE: This is not a race, but an opportunity to test your skills by driving your equine at a working trot (or walk) over a prescribed distance to meet an undisclosed optimal time based on your equine size (VSE/Small Pony, Pony or Horse).

PRIZES:

1st–6th place awards will be given in each of the two divisions.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- Plan to bring a dish for the potluck lunch. The Florida Whips will provide drinks and dessert.
- There will also be a horse massage therapist available. Regular price $50, $30 event discount.
