planned for this event ...*

DESPOOKING & COMMUNICATION CLINIC

SAT., APRIL 14, 2018 | VERO BEACH, FLORIDA

Please note location change from Wickham Park in Melbourne to Whispering Pines Equestrian Facility in Vero Beach

*Do you have a horse you're starting to train to drive?
Do you have a horse you already drive who is over-reactive to certain situations?*

At this clinic, you will be working with your horse in-hand around various obstacles and challenges to improve your communication and their positive response to different stimuli.

- The morning 2 hour session will have you working your horse in your rope halter/lead.
- There will be a 1 hour lunch break (lunch is included in the registration fee)
- The afternoon 2 hour session will build on the morning's lessons.
You may be able to work your horse in your blinker bridle and harness (ground driving), or continue working in-hand with your rope halter/lead.

PLEASE NOTE: This is not a "teach your horse to drive" clinic and your horse will not be hooked to a cart at this event.

ABOUT THE CLINICIAN:

Sarah Schlaich is the instructor and trainer at Whispering Pines Equestrian Facility, which focuses on teaching basic horsemanship to children and adults. She rides and trains Western and has been riding for almost 20 years. Sarah loves to compete in various types of events such as obstacle challenges, barrel racing and Extreme Cowboy Association races.
